The Salthouse family has a tradition dating back over 65 years designing and building some of the finest quality boats in New Zealand. The CORSAIR is undoubtedly one of the most proven launch designs tested over the last three decades around New Zealand's rugged coastline in applications varying from customs patrol, police patrol, commercial fishing to deep sea game fishing. It has gained a reputation for strength and integrity that is second to none. The CORSAIR has been designed for today's lifestyle, from the luxurious interior to the spacious cockpit, with the high quality Salthouse finish throughout.

DESIGNED WITH PRECISION

The CORSAIR's practical and functional design maximises the amount of space. Its superb features include:

- Large windows, providing panoramic visibility while underway or enjoying the surroundings at anchor
- Aft galley positioning designed to enable easy conversation while preparing food and entertaining.
- Saloon and cockpit tables providing options for dining indoors or out or both
- Spacious living areas, comparable with those of much larger vessels
- Generous-sized cockpit – perfect for alfresco dining, fishing and relaxing
- Handcrafted timber interior
- Full galley with large pull-out pantry for great storage.

UNPRECEDENTED PERFORMANCE

Take the helm of a Salthouse CORSAIR and you'll experience a sense of power, control and performance you've never known before with fuel efficiency that is second to none.
