Najad 441 - 1999

The Najad 441 stands out as a top choice for serious ocean cruisers, and Archon is an exceptional example of this renowned yacht. Meticulously maintained by its current owner, Archon's gleaming hull is a testament to its care and quality. This model features a new hull design compared to the 440, with a small wing at the bottom of the keel, a semi-balanced rudder, and an integrated stern swim platform. Najad is celebrated for its superior woodwork, and stepping below deck on Archon, you'll see why. The spacious main saloon boasts luxurious leather upholstery encircling a central table. Forward, there's a double cabin to port with a toilet and shower opposite, leading to a comfortable double v-berth in the forepeak. To starboard, a well-appointed galley offers ample bench space, with a chart table opposite. The port-side passageway leads to the ensuite master cabin, featuring an island double bed and a cozy settee. Sailing is made easy with an electric furling main sail, whose gearbox has just been refurbished, twin furling genoas and Anderson winches 2 of which are electric, complemented by a Seldon mast and boom. Top-of-the-line Raymarine electronics include a Chartplotter, Radar, Sailing instruments, and Autopilot, with VHF and HF radios by ICOM. The yacht is powered by a robust 110hp Yanmar engine with dual alternators, solar panels managed by Victron Controllers and inverter. A bow thruster ensures smooth berthing. Service batteries 6 x 140AH Varta batteries, 230V Chargers x2, 230V 2000-watt Inverter, BALMAR 140 amp 24v Large Frame Heavy Duty Alternator, VICTRON DC to DC 30 amp power converters x 2, Bow thruster STEIBNER 10 hp, Solar panels x 4.
