Whether you're dreaming of crossing oceans or cruising the coast, Seraphina delivers peace of mind with every nautical mile. She will need attention to a few details before being ready for long passages but, once these details have been addressed, only the horizon stands between you and many adventures. Below deck, you'll find a warm, spacious interior perfect for liveaboard life. With generous headroom, clever storage, and a functional galley. Cosy yet practical, she's ready to welcome you aboard for weekend getaways or global adventures. Being 30 years old she could do with some love in areas, mainly cosmetic. This, however is reflected in the price. Seraphina is ready for her next chapter. Alongside the sale of Seraphina, there is a swing mooring just off of One Tree Point. This can be included with the sale to give this lovely lady a home. At $8,000 it is definitely worth a thought.
